

CRAFTING SKETCH COMEDY

Do you want to write character monologues, commercial parody, or political satire? Are you in a comedy group and need to learn how to turn an inspired improv into a written scene? If so, this class is for you!

There's a reason SNL, The Tonight Show, Full Frontal with Samantha Bee, etc. staff their writing rooms with Second City, Groundlings, and Upright Citizens Brigade alums. The skills learned at those comedy institutions are invaluable.

Maryedith Burrell (Second City, Groundlings, SNL, Fridays, Seinfeld) and Tom Chalmers (Artistic Director Groundlings East, Staff Writer: Showtime TV, Director Asheville School of Improv,) bring their comedy pedigrees to this 8-session writing course at The Flatiron Writers Room, 5 Covington St., West Asheville. Classes run Feb. 18th - April 8th, Saturdays 10AM - 12:30PM, limited enrollment. $250 if you register before Feb. 11th, $275 after. BYO laptop/writing materials.
